Research Project

2015: Undertook a country-wide analysis on 'The status of library utilization, services, and Cambodian women's ICT literacy.' This analysis is a joint research between Life University and APWINC in Korea. This is part of the ASEAN-ROK Cooperation Project called 'Strategy for ASEAN women's socioeconomic empowerment through ICT library and leadership education,' which is funded by the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Korea (South Korea). The main project covers all ASEAN member states.

2014: Conducted research on a topic 'Exploring English Language Needs according to Undergraduate Students and Employers in Cambodia.' The research project was solely funded through a grant package of Life University, Cambodia.
